Daily Herald Next Week.
We will have a daily each day of the fair next week, and will not have any weekly issue next Wednesday. Our daily issue will be at least 1,000 copies each day, and it will be a fine time for advertising. Subscription five cents per copy or twenty cents during the week. We will insert displayed advertisements now appearing in the weekly, at one-fourth the regular rates. Displayed advertisements for the daily, at one-half the rates of weekly. Locals, at five cents per line, each insertion.

When parties organize and adopt their platforms, we like to see them come square out, give identically what they mean, no indecisive policy, no subtlety that may be transformed to suit the chances of change brought about by moneyed monopolies in financial affairs, or the political demagogue of the John Sherman school jugglers, one color today and another to-morrow. Display your colors uniform alike and stand front-face in rank. If for gold and silver say so, if for greenbacks say so, if for bank monopolies such as National Banks, let us hear you say it. If, however, the Republicans are to give an uncertain sound and in one locality declare for gold and silver, in another for banks, then the truth is patent, the party is not honest, or does not understand itself. In the Louisville Republican Convention, they nominated Col. Scott, and declared for National Bank paper, and against greenbacks. Here in this district they declare for metallic money alone. In view of this state of the Republican party, we simply say to the people, what do you think of the consistency presented, and what are you to expect from a house divided against itself. There is but one solution of this double-headed and ten-headed monster, and that is, that he is about to destroy himself, seeing his death inevitable, for in no possible contingency can any party survive, that plants itself against the true interests of the people and in the embrace of monopolies. We can not regret the suicide that is being committed, the national good demands it, the death will be a relief, for the old chronic invalid can not be cured, far better to die than annoy the nation with a burden too long borne.

While the people of the South are suffering the greatest possible affliction, their towns and cities becoming desolate, mourners going about the streets and the dead lying unburied in forsaken houses, I am abandoned and families scattered never to meet again, they who survive will feel their sorrow mitigated and their stricken hearts soothed by the fact that the whole nation was deeply moved at their misfortune; that from the abundance of the rich, from the mite of the widow and the pence of the children, contributions had been anxiously and cheerfully sent to their relief. And how much gratitude will they always feel in reflecting upon the noble self-sacrificing spirit of those who came to help them in their sufferings and distress. Time will be too short to repay in gratitude and time too short to develop the immortal virtues of the God-like souls that sacrifice themselves for the good of the stricken people of the South.

The description given of the sufferings of the people in some of the cities of the South, almost seem impossible of credence, and yet they are true. Such terrible suffering never has overtaken any people upon this continent. In reading some of the accounts from distinguished gentlemen, we could not but revert to the historic account of the besieging of Jerusalem by the Romans. It is truly appalling to think how suddenly all that was hopeful and bright in that sunny land of promise has darkened and passed away. We utter the prayer of the whole people, God have mercy on the afflicted South!

The Democrats of Ohio county are holding up Prof. W. B. Hayward for Superintendent of Public Instruction. He is a very pleasant, agreeable gentleman, and impresses us as being a good new paper man. He was accompanied by his son.

The yellow fever seems to be abating in New Orleans and Memphis.

The Republicans of the Second District—
Their Convention on Platform and Nominees.

(Louisville Commercial.)
The Republicans of the Second Congressional district met in convention at Greenville, Muhlenburg county, Tuesday September 17, 1878.

The convention was called to order at 2 P. M., and organized by selecting Mr. Wilky S. Hays, of Muhlenburg county, temporary chairman, and Mr. Arthur Palmer, of the Kentucky Republican Madisonville, as temporary Secretary.

A call of the counties showed delegates from Hopkins, Ohio, Muhlenburg, Christian, Webster, Daviess and Henderson—seven counties; as there are ten in the district, there were three unrepresented. A committee on permanent organization, consisting of J. Z. Moore, of Daviess, W. L. Garth, of Christian, Dr. Thomas W. Gardner, of Hopkins county, reported in favor of making J. W. Allison, of Henderson, permanent Chairman, and M. J. Roark, of Muhlenburg, permanent Secretary. This was adopted by acclamation. The name Arthur Palmer, of Hopkins county, as Secretary, and adopted.

Mr. Allison, on taking the chair, said that it was an honor next to him, and for which he was entirely unprepared, and asked that the business of the convention be promptly forwarded to the end that he might not be tedious.

Mr. C. H. Smith, of the Louisville Commercial, was selected by the convention as honorary secretary. In accepting the position, Mr. S. said that he was not here seeking honors for himself, and would accept the position as complimentary to the journal he represented, &c.

Messrs. Feighan, of Daviess, Gardner, of Hopkins, and H. Tinsley, of Ohio, were appointed a Committee on Credentials, and reported that the respective counties represented in this convention are entitled to the following votes, viz: One for each fully and impartially declared for the President Hayes in 1878—Ohio county 28; Daviess 19; Henderson 30; Hopkins 16; Christian 30; Webster 12; Muhlenburg 24.

A committee on Resolutions was appointed by the Chair and composed of Messrs. Gardner, of Muhlenburg; Moore, of Daviess; Hubbard, of Ohio; Nesbitt, of Henderson; and Garth, of Christian, who reported the following resolutions:

1. That they adhere with unwavering fidelity to the principles of the Republican party as set forth and expounded in the platform adopted in the National Convention at Cincinnati in 1876.

2. That they are in favor of such an amendment to Congress, and by the State Legislature, and of the active and prompt enforcement of the same, as may be necessary to secure and protect all classes and conditions of persons in the possession and enjoyment of all their rights and privileges under the Constitution and laws of the land.

3. That they are in favor of honest and economical administration of both the National and State Governments, and of holding all in authority to the strictest accountability.

4. That they are in favor of the prompt payment of the public debt, in the manner provided for by the obligations of the Government, and of an unswerving maintenance of the national faith at all times and under all circumstances.

5. That in order to secure to the people of the whole country a circulating medium of the purchasing power of which shall not be shifting and uncertain, but uniform with the universal standard of value, they are in favor of the adoption of such measures as may be necessary to bring about and maintain such payment.

6. That they are opposed to the repeal of the law of Congress known as the "Resumption Act," but are in favor of its rigid enforcement.

7. That they favor that measure of civil service reform under which a Republican administration shall place the Government in the hands of honest men, who are known and identified as true, tried and trusted Republicans.

8. That the patriotic efforts of President Hayes looking to the pacification of the Nation, and the magnanimity in extending the hand of reconciliation towards the people lately in rebellion, meets our hearty approval, and we regret that his efforts have not been met in the spirit in which they were extended.

9. That they are in favor of a tariff for revenue only, and for placing on the free list quarantine and other necessary medicines.

10. That these resolutions be published in the Louisville Commercial, the Kentucky Republican and the Rockport Register.

The resolutions were unanimously adopted.

Mr. Roark, Muhlenburg county, then nominated Mr. J. W. Feighan, of Daviess county, to represent the Congressional District in Congress. Seconded by Mr. Garth, of Christian, and carried by acclamation.

Speeches were made by Feighan, Hubbard and Moore, and with a hurrah for the candidate, the Convention was adjourned.

The press was represented by Mr. Palmer, of the Kentucky Republican, of Madisonville; Mr. Allison, of the Evansville Journal, and C. H. Smith, of Louisville Commercial. The greatest harmony and good feeling prevailed, all feeling like they should continue before going home. Mr. Feighan, the nominee, is Ohio born, a graduate of the Cincinnati Law School, an ex-editor, was in the Union army, is a prominent lawyer of Owensboro, will give Mr. McKenzie a good Greenville has had honors thrust upon him in the last month, three Congresses have assembled there at that time, but he quiet citizens exhort the honors with equanimity and dignity, with a due regard to hope. I would like to tell you some good things said by the speakers but have already consumed too much time to excess. C. H.

Prof. W. B. Hayward addressed public at the court house last Monday. He had quite a large and very attentive audience. His remarks were couched in a way to please all. He is not an avowed candidate as yet, but a host of everywhere are urging him to the race. He said that for forty years the Church and State had wedded, so far as the office was concerned, and he thought it time to divorce them. He made a fine impression on his hearers.

We expect to have a Tele. reaching from our office to the grounds, and will have an open each end of the line. Those who secure it will be allowed the right to send messages free. It will be free to experiment upon when not in use, by any visitors to the fair. It will be sold on the last day of the fair at public auction and the proceeds of the sale will go to those helping us secure it.

The yellow fever seems to be abating in New Orleans and Memphis.

A CARD.
To the Voters of the Second Congressional District.

Fellow Citizens:
I announce myself an Independent candidate for Congress of this, the Second District, at the ensuing November election. I feel it my duty to say a few words in regard to the past and also to the future. First place, it seems to me that the people have forgotten that they have any Constitution at all. You can't hear anything but party, and there are a number of persons ready to help cover up the wrongs the two old parties have done. I will just say to you, people, that if you ever expect to get right any more, you will have to go back to the Constitution of the United States of America, which was given you by your forefathers—that General George Washington crossed so many icy rivers and frozen mountains for your protection. So it will protect you still, if you will only think so, and claim it as your guide, instead of party and of itself, will settle all of these troubles, if you will only send me a message, and I will submit to any usurpation of power. General Washington said in his farewell address to the people of the United States of America in the House of Congress, that this usurpation of power was the customary weapon by which free government was destroyed. So I say that that usurper the power when they did it, that you stand good for now. So I say that it is a usurpation of power for you to pay taxes and the bondholder to go free. Furthermore, that it was a usurpation of power when the Congress voted a double salary on their own heads. So if you will let them still go on they will soon usurp your land and freedom. Who is it to blame for it? Why, sir, those that vote them back into power again—one party is no better than the other for they will make you a flowery speech, then they will go back and do the same thing over again. One party, I say, is as guilty as the other, and why should you look to them for reconstruction for they have lost all honor, law, truth and virtue to the people of this General Government.

So now I shall give you my platform list. I stand upon the Constitution of the United States, and where they have altered it by usurpation of power, reinstate it again, and to have a fair settlement with the bond holders by the old Constitution, to allow them dollar for dollar instead of drawing interest from date and no more for the last plainly says that you shall not have something for nothing, so it is not something for nothing I do not understand what something for nothing is, though I do understand that this is a usurpation of power. So make him pay taxes from the time he ceased paying taxes, the same as you had to pay them, with compound interest, and to have a fair straight-out settlement with him, and if we owe him anything make him take such money as you have to take, and if he will not settle on those terms, repudiate the debt and protect your rights by the bond holders don't need any protection only by the law. Equal taxation and representation, and then strike a sufficient quantity of greenback or Government money to release the people from the present crisis, and make it equal with gold, pay all debts, public and private, never redeemable; for if we want it today we will need it to-morrow and so on. A time may last so what's the use of any redemption? Gives the gold gambler another chance for a holdover game on you. So if this is made equal with gold it does not need any redemption, but if it is not, though if the Government repudiate proper in time to redeem, let him redeem at pleasure, if not, never redeemable; and for the Government to have the census taken and let every county draw its portion and distribute it to the people. By this way this money can commence circulation, and it can reach the doors of the sufferer and needy. On any other terms I don't see any relief. Some say they are for the Government, so do I. So far as the people of the Government freeing themselves from the bonded debt there is no use of it if you can't believe it. So let our Government affairs run along smooth and level as long as time may last, and virtue, peace and harmony once more rule on our country, and live in peace and quietude the balance of our days. So I stand steady and immovable upon this platform. Sink or swim, survive or perish, these are my living sentiments, and the power of God they shall be my dying sentiments. Equal taxation and free representation now and forever.

And now a word to the officers of the poll books please put my name on them as a candidate for Congress.

Cromwell Items.
Editor Herald:
We are having a great deal of sickness in this part of the county. Mr. Wm. Shull is building a beautiful residence, which will add greatly to the appearance of the town.

Another firm change. Abe Kahn has bought out Isaac Mendel's stock of dry goods, &c., and has sent Mr. Mendel East to purchase a large stock of goods, and will carry on the business at the old stand. Nothing like a change to improve business.

Thos. Gilstrap is enlarging and improving his business house, to make room for his large stock of dry goods clothing.

By a perusal of the proceedings of the Republicans Convention, held in Greenville, which appears in this issue, it will be seen that Col. J. W. Feighan of Owensboro, was nominated, for Congress. We are well acquainted with Col. Feighan, and personally, our associations have been pleasant. We like him, but politically, we are "agin him."

Republicans like mileage as well as Democrats.

Dr. W. G. Hunter, the Republican candidate for Congress in this district, was a member of the legislature in 1875-6, and drew $165 mileage, about three times as much as our representatives drew, living on an air line, about the same distance from Frankfort. If he lived in California and were elected to Congress, at a similar rate the mileage on one term properly managed would support him a life time, even if he were to live a hundred years. (Bowling Green Democrat.)

Isaac Mendel, of Cromwell, has sold out to Abe Kahn, who will carry on the same trade in the same house. Mr. K. is now daily receiving goods from the eastern cities. His stock has been selected with great care and purchased at the lowest prices, and he is determined to sell as low as anybody. His stock consists of a full line of clothing for men, youths and boys for fall and winter wear. Dry goods of all kinds and all goods usually found in a general store. Call and examine his stock.

Teacher's Institute.
The Ohio County Teacher's Institute convened in the Court House in Hartford September 17, 1878. Called to order by the Commissioner. Appointed Alfred Ashby, Jr., Sec'y. At 10:30 there was an address delivered by Dr. H. A. M. Henderson, Superintendent of Public Instruction, on the duties of the State to common schools. On motion of W. L. Hawkins the thanks of the Institute were tendered Dr. Henderson for his address.

Proceeded to the enrollment of teachers. H. A. M. Henderson, R. P. Rowe, Commissioners.

M. McIntyre, Jas. W. Williams, Miss Sallie Peyton, Miss C. Shull, Nester Barnett, Miss Jennie Park, J. W. Taylor, Miss Prudie Baird, G. W. Quinn, T. J. Graves, J. C. Wallace, J. H. Weller, from Hartford.

Morris Wilson, T. J. Wedding, G. C. Gentry, A. M. Phillips, J. W. Petty, from Fordville.

W. H. Coppage, H. C. Powers, J. W. Taber, Miss F. L. Johnson, from Sulphur Springs.

Miss Annanella Rains, J. P. Heavrin, G. B. Thompson, J. H. Miller, W. G. Stewart, N. J. Thomas, S. D. Morgan, J. J. Bailey, B. T. Lawrence, Miss Ella Day, R. R. Wedding, from Rosine.

Alfred Ashby, Jr., Geo. R. Ashby, S. Bishop, Andrew Williams, from Centertown.

Obed Bennett, J. W. Bishop, from Pt. Pleasant.

Nathan Likens, Ben. Johns, from Horse Branch.

John H. Barnes, P. E. Hoeker, R. P. Hoeker, Wm. A. Hoeker, J. P. Austin, Miss Verda Gentry, J. M. Berry, R. Plummer, from Beaver Dam.

A. W. Davidson, Miss Lizzie Arbuckle S. T. Stevens, Miss Sue Taylor, from Cromwell.

Henry O. King, from Pleasant Ridge. J. H. Harper, G. W. Gibbs, A. H. Ross, from Rockport.

R. R. Stewart, J. C. Hoover, from Buford.

T. T. Martin, from Livia.

W. B. Taylor, from Rochester.

W. L. Hawkins, E. R. Bennett, J. C. Park, from Beala.

W. W. Miller, H. B. Taylor, L. B. Loney, from McHenry.

Prof. J. M. Halseell, from Bowling Green.

S. W. Kirby, J. T. Coffman, F. O. Coffman, from Cervato.

After enrollment, adjourned for dinner.

ATTEENDEE SESSION.
The Commissioner appointed M. McIntyre, M. Wilson and John H. Harper a committee on programme. Remarks on the design of the Institute, by R. P. Hoeker. Discussion of same, by M. W. Wilson, J. P. Heavrin and W. L. Hawkins. Preparation of the teacher, by W. L. Hawkins. How I organize my schools, by discussion, by M. McIntyre, W. G. Stewart, J. H. Harper and others. First lesson in grammar, by P. E. Hoeker. Discussion of same, by M. McIntyre and W. L. Hawkins.

On motion, adjourned to meet September 18, 1879.

ALFRED ASHBY, JR., Sec'y.

Criminal Court Proceedings.
Criminal Court opened Monday morning, but up to this writing but little has been done. The following persons compose the Grand Jury: C. W. Butler, foreman, George H. Hoover, Thomas Taylor, Harrison Fleener, H. J. C. Lindley, A. A. Bryant, Wm. Boswell, Virgil Davenport, Ewing Morris, T. S. Bennett, Jno. L. Rock, Thomas S. Smith, James Tinsley, Isaac N. Duke, H. J. Coleman and Jo Cor Barnett.

The following gentlemen compose the petit jury: W. H. Austin, H. T. Ford, E. V. Kimbly, J. L. Rander, J. S. Arnold, Thos. J. Lowe, J. F. Ambrose, S. L. Taylor, T. W. Taylor, Alfred Ashby, Sr., F. W. Pirtle, Wm. H. Moore, Wm. Gentry, Wm. M. Hunter, Wm. D. Coleman, Wm. Cannon, Elijah Crow, J. F. Black, John C. Westerfield, G. H. Barnes, Remus Gilson, F. W. Aeton, W. S. Barrett, and T. A. Bratcher.

Col. Ben. Shown of Beech Grove, Madison county, announces himself in this issue, as an Independent candidate for Congress. His card in this issue sets forth his views and platform.

Dr. Lightfoot, of Hancock, is the Greenback candidate for Congress. So we now have four Congressional aspirants before us.

By a perusal of the proceedings of the Republicans Convention, held in Greenville, which appears in this issue, it will be seen that Col. J. W. Feighan of Owensboro, was nominated, for Congress. We are well acquainted with Col. Feighan, and personally, our associations have been pleasant. We like him, but politically, we are "agin him."

VEGETINE
Purifies the Blood & Gives Strength.
Dr. QUINN, Jan. 21, 1878.

Mr. H. R. STEVENS:
Dear Sir, Your "Vegetine" has been doing wonders for me. Have been having the Cuntis and Faver, contracted in the swamps of the South, nothing giving me relief until I began the use of your Vegetine, it giving me immediate relief, toning up my system, purifying my blood, giving strength; whereas all other medicines weakened me, and I felt my system with poison; and I am satisfied that if families that live in the swamps of the South and West would take Vegetine two or three times a week, they would not be troubled with the Cuntis or the malignant Faver that prevail at certain times of the year, save doctors' bills, and live to a good old age.

Respectfully yours, J. E. MITCHELL, Agent Haver's Lumber, St. Louis, Mo.

All Diseases of the Blood. If Vegetine will relieve pain, cleanse, purify and cure such diseases, restore the patient to perfect health, after trying different physicians, many remedies, suffering for years, is it not conclusive proof, if you are a sufferer, you can be cured? Why is this medicine producing such great cures? It works in the blood, in the circulating fluid. It can truly be called the Great Blood Purifier. The great source of disease originates in the blood; and no medicine that does not act directly upon it, to purify and cleanse it, has any claim upon public attention.

VEGETINE
Has Entirely Cured Me of Vertigo.
Cairo, Ill., Jan. 23, 1878.

Dear Sir—I have used several bottles of "Vegetine" and it has entirely cured me of Vertigo. I have also used it for Kidney Complaint, and the cure was entirely effected. I also found my general health much improved. I believe it to be a good medicine.

PAIN AND DISEASE. Can we expect to enjoy good health when bad or corrupt humors circulate with the blood, causing pain and disease, and these humors, being deposited through the entire body, produce pimples, eruptions, ulcers, indigestion, costiveness, headache, neuralgia, rheumatism, and numerous other diseases, however they may be taking Vegetine, the most reliable remedy for cleansing and purifying the blood.

VEGETINE
I Believe it to be a Good Medicine.
Xenia, O., March 1, 1877.

Dear Sir—I wish to inform you what your Vegetine has done for me. I have been afflicted with Neuralgia, and after using three bottles of your Vegetine, the cure was entirely effected. I also found my general health much improved. I believe it to be a good medicine.

Yours truly, FRED HARTYETIK.

Vegetine thoroughly eradicates every kind of humor, and restores the entire system to a healthy condition.

VEGETINE.
Druggist's Report.
H. R. STEVENS:
Dear Sir—We have been selling your "Vegetine" for the past eighteen months, and we take pleasure in stating that in every case, to our knowledge, it has given great satisfaction. Respectfully, Beck & Co., Druggists, Hickman, Ky.

Dr. S. A. Jackson, of Paradise, was in town last Monday.

We regret to learn that Mr. Wm. Shull is quite sick with bilious fever.

W. M. Ingram, of Mississippi, was registered at the Hartford House Monday.

R. H. Glover, Esq., of Calhoun, spent a day or two in town this week a guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. King.

Born to the wife of Finley M. Barnett Sept. 20, 1878, a daughter—weight 7 1/2 pounds. Papa is happy and mother is doing well.

G. W. Bennett, formerly of this county, but now of Terre Haute, Ill., complimented us by subscribing for the Herald on Monday last.

Dr. G. R. Sanders, of Centertown, called and enrolled his name on our subscription book, and says he cannot do without the Herald longer.

I. R. Withrow, of Equality, paid his subscription Monday, and says he is well pleased with the Herald and wishes it abundant prosperity.

Mr. James Chambers, traveling agent for Ed. Wilder, wholesale druggist, Louisville, was in town Monday, the guest of the Hartford House.

The register at the Hartford House last Monday contained the names of seventy-nine guests, exclusive of the regular boarders.

S. P. Roby, E. Hubbard, Woodberry Tinsley and Henry Tinsley, were delegates to the Republican Convention at Greenville, last Tuesday week.

The citizens of Hartford to this date have helped the Southern sufferers over $200. There is not in Kentucky as small a town that has done so well.

An endless variety of dress goods at E. Small's. Ladies' cloaks, shawls, hats and all kinds of millinery goods, at E. Small's.

I have on hands a large and well selected stock of Groceries, which I am selling low for Cash. Give me a call.

M. F. HINES.

The next meeting of the Muhlenburg County Agricultural Association, will be held in Greenville, commencing Tuesday, October 15, and continue five days.

Mr. Samuel Morton, of Centertown, gave us a California cucumber last Monday. It is three feet and four inches long. It is on file with our other curiosities.

We received a new communication from our correspondent "Nemo," at Island Station, after going to press. Nemo must write by Monday's mail to reach us in time.

By reference to the advertisement of Mr. W. T. King, it will be seen that he now has his new stable opened to the public. Everything is first-class, comfortable and handy.

Judge John Allen Murray, of Cloverport, arrived last Saturday, and is a guest of the Hartford House. He opened court Monday morning, giving the usual charge to the Grand Jury.

Alfred Patterson, (who, by the way, is the handsomest man in the county, our devil excopted), brought us a sample of this Chinese sugar cane, which is hard to beat in size of stalk.

Mr. D. B. Roll, of Paradise, called to see us last Monday. Mr. Roll is President of the Muhlenburg County Agricultural Association, and was in our county in the interest of the Company.

The Alexander Hotel, Seventh and Market, Louisville, Ky., is still the popular resort for the great masses of people that visit Louisville. No hotel in the West has such a run of custom.

Occurents, clothing of every description, Men's, boys' and youth's suits at extraordinary low prices, at E. Small's.

Dr. H. S. Wood, of Litchfield, arrived per announcement in last week's issue and has taken rooms at the Hartford House, where he will be pleased to have those call wishing dentistry done.

We had the pleasure of a call last Monday from Mr. T. J. Roll, of Paradise. Mr. Roll informs us that he has been engaged to teach the school at Hopewell, this county, and will commence Monday, September 30.

The low prices at which J. Winter & Co., Merchant Tailors, corner 3d and Market streets, Louisville, Ky., make clothes to order, the fits and styles they produce, ought to induce you to leave your measure with them.

E. P. Thomas & Co., have secured the exclusive privileges of selling refreshments during the Fair. They will also run an eating saloon during the Fair, where persons can get a good, warm meal for twenty-five cents.

The wife of J. H. Keown, near Cromwell, got thrown from a horse last Saturday week, and was badly crippled, being hurt in the hip joint. She is unable to turn or move herself in bed and it is feared that she is dangerously hurt.

Boots and shoes, ladies' and children's shoes at prices lower than ever before, at E. Small's.

Mr. Samuel Bennett, of Rockport vicinity, called on us Monday and renewed his subscription to the Herald. Mr. B. has been an invalid for about a year, but we know that his many friends will be glad to learn that he is improving.

Mr. Isaac C. Hoover has been engaged to teach the school at Sarvis Hill school house, district No. 12. This school will begin on the first Monday in October, 1878, and continue five months. This is a good district, containing about seventy scholars.

Mr. R. C. Hudson, living near Buford, brought us a flint rock which has the appearance of once being round and broken half in two. On the flat side of the rock is an almost perfect representation of the full moon. It is added to our other relics and curiosities.

Blankets, comforts and coverlets, all sorts and sizes, at prices that defy competition, at E. Small's.

We are in receipt of a copy programme of the Breckenridge County Fair Company, to be held at or near Harborsburg, commencing Tuesday, October 22, 1878, and continuing five days. It bears the imprint of the Breckenridge News, and is very neatly executed.

Maj. Joe Havcraft, of Owensboro, reached here on Saturday last, and is stopping at the Arnold House. The Major is looking well and was on hand Monday morning ready to represent the interest of the old Commonwealth, as prosecuting attorney.

Victoria is reported to have said not long ago, when she had given an order to one of her domestics: "I am Queen of Great Britain and Empress of India; but I have not power enough to make one of my servants put coals on the fire, if she has been hired to look after the bed chamber."

There are few positions more enviable than that of the English Judge. A salary of $25,000 a year, with a pension of $15,000 on retirement, and pickens for which a Judge, who does much the same work for about $2,500 or $3,000 a year, must long for with all the strength of his judicial mind.

Lost—In Hartford Monday, Sept. 16, 1878, a bay mare with knot on left side and star in forehead; had on Morgan saddle with broken horn, and a piece of bridle. A reward of $5.00 will be paid to any person finding and bringing said mare to me at Beaver Dam.

WILLIAM BARNES.

Just as we went to press we received a letter from Mr. Joseph Mulholland, giving an account of the yellow fever ravages in Tennessee. The disease is working Northward.

The Ladies Department of the Louisville Exposition is superior to any former display of the kind; in the beauty and attractiveness of the articles shown and in the general arrangement of the department. Our lady readers will see much of interest, and gain many useful hints by examining this corner of the great Exposition carefully and thoroughly.

"Ophelia" writes to ask if sacred history mentions card playing. "Certainly, my dear girl, Moses 'killed' for the children of Israel, and when the latter got to Jordan they 'passed' Solomon 'ordered up' the temple, Baalam held a 'jack', and the seven priests before Jericho took the city by 'playing their seven trumpets'."

Read the advertisement of W. R. McDowell, druggist, McHenry, Ky. He has recently opened a drug store at that place, and would be pleased to supply the wants of those wishing anything in the drug line. Mr. McDowell is a young man, just entering into business, and solicits the patronage of the citizens of that section of the county. Give him a call.

The Ohio County Fair Company will hold their thirteenth annual fair next week, commencing Tuesday and continuing five days. The locality of our town, the high, dry and beautifully located grounds, the excellent and abundant water, the exceedingly liberal premiums offered, the attractive speed ring and the gentlemanly officers tend to make this one of the most interesting fairs of the season.

About a month ago a severe storm swept over the farm of Mrs. Mary Peyton, one mile south of here. The lightning struck an apple tree during the storm, splitting the body of the tree and scattering the leaves so badly that they dried up and fell off, and the tree appeared dead until last week, when, strange to relate, it bloomed out in full with nice new leaves just like spring time. This is an actual reality.

Read the new advertisement of Wm. G. Dunca & Bro., McHenry, Ky. They are live business young men, and from the reading of their advertisement one would think they meant business. They have made quite an addition to their building, and are prepared to wait upon their customers with pleasure. They are receiving a large stock of goods. Give them a call—no trouble to show goods.

Prof. Wm. Rowden, of Jeffersonville, Ind., arrived here last week to take the leadership of the Hartford Cornet Band. The Professor has had considerable experience in teaching and leading bands, and, as the band has been employed to furnish music for our fair, we may expect something good on that occasion. The band is composed of the following clever and pleasant gentlemen: Prof. Rowden, leader; Clarence Hardwick and Jerry Williams, cornet; H. L. Jarboe and L. F. Condit, alto; E. P. Thomas and John Bean, tenor; W. A. Gibson, tuba; A. T. Nall, bass drum and John R. Collins, snare drum.

Mr. D. J. Rhoads, of Beaver Dam, brought us, last week, a sample of white corn grown by himself from seed of some of the premium corn left at our fair last February. The ears are very long and large and was grown on ground that has been in cultivation for sixty years, without manure. He also presented to us a bottle of molasses made from the Golden Drop sugar cane. The molasses is clear and bright, and has quite a palatable taste. Mr. Rhoads informs us that he has budled from the peach tree of Willis Stewart—the same that produced such large peaches this year. Mr. R. gathered two peaches from this tree that weighed two pounds and seven ounces.

Happy Greetings.

There is a merchant of great renown Who lives about five miles from town. You ought to go and see his store. How it is packed from roof to floor. With all kinds of goods and Earthenware. The best and cheapest anywhere. And when you hear him name the price. You will wonder at the sacrifice. How he can sell them and pay his way. For he almost gives his goods away. He selects the best he buys no trash. And pays for them the ready cash. That is the secret how he can sell. Though it does not do for me to tell. He sells so low for the times so hard. That is the way of I. P. Barnard. The goods he has there are top-sham. His store is right at Beaver Dam. And then he has such a nice young clerk. He is so active and so smart. To wait upon you when you buy. And sell whatever takes your eye. But if you want something good and fine. Just visit his other store at Taylor Mine. It's there he keeps all kinds of goods. Right in the middle of the woods. To suit the people all around. That they in abundance may abound. Just visit him—you'll be sure to buy. O. He is the prince of Merchants in Ohio. A Visitor.

Fresh Meats.

I will keep fresh meats for sale every day during Fair and Court weeks.

Don't Buy a Wagon

Until you have read the advertisement of the "Cortland" platform and Spring Wagon, and the Jackson Farm Wagon, in the paper, and write to Hewitt, Field & Co., Louisville, for a catalogue.

Sold too Soon.

A few years ago our friend H. S. Midkiff sold the baby crib, and on last Sunday night his wife presented him with a fine daughter, weight, fourteen pounds. He now longs for the crib and will have to purchase another.

Ohio County Fair Company.

The Thirteenth Annual Fair of the Ohio County Fair Company will be held on their grounds at Hartford, commencing Tuesday, October the first, and continuing five days. For programmes etc., apply to Clarence Hardwick, Secretary.

Excursion Postponed.

The excursion from Beaver Dam to Paducah, that was advertised to take place last Sunday, was postponed until Sunday week, 6th of October. This was done on account of yellow fever scare—fears being entertained that the disease might reach Paducah. Tickets and complimentary passes for the trip will be good then. Let's all go and have a good time.

New Millinery and Mantua-Maker Establishment.

Mrs. Maggie Jarboe and Miss Juliet Hardwick have embarked in the mantua and millinery business. They have located in the room over Williams Bros' grocery, in Hartford. They are prepared to cut, fit and make dresses in the latest styles. Patterns for dress. A full line of millinery goods just received.

Woolen Goods at the Fair.

I will be on hand at the Fair at Hartford next week with a full line of Jeans, Linsey, Flannels, Blankets, Cassimeres, Tweeds, Bulmers, Shirts, and Stocking Yarns of permanent colors and well manufactured by the Ramsey Woolen Mills, James Cates, proprietor, which I will sell for Cash or trade for Wool. Come prepared to trade with me.

J. J. WILLIAMS, Agent.

An Unpleasant Truth.

You deserve to suffer, and if you lead a miserable, unsatisfactory life in this beautiful world, it is entirely your own fault, and there is only one excuse for you—your unreasonable prejudice and skepticism, which has killed thousands. Personal knowledge and common sense reasoning will soon show you that Green's August Flower will cure you of Liver Complaint, or Dyspepsia, with all its miserable effects, such as sick headache, palpitation of the heart, sour stomach, habitual costiveness, dizziness of the head, nervous prostration, low spirits, &c. Its sales now reach every town on the Western Continent, and not a druggist but will tell you of its wonderful cures. You can buy a sample bottle for 10 cents. Three doses will relieve you.

Beyond the Reach of Human Skill.

Is the power to restore the hair to bald heads when the bulbs at the roots are destroyed by age or disease; but there are doubtless many persons becoming bald, whose hair by careful attention might be restored to its original luxuriance and beauty. Parker's Hair Balm is an elegant preparation, designed to meet the public want for a harmless hair dressing and restorative. Its acts like magic, commencing at the very roots, removes dandruff and all humors from the scalp, and never fails to restore gray or faded hair to the original color, and the soft, rich and glossy appearance of youth. By its occasional use falling of the hair is immediately checked, and a luxuriant and beautiful growth of young hair induced. The exquisite perfume and the purity of its composition are highly appreciated, and as it is not a dye and does not stain the skin or clothing, it is a growing favorite of the toilet-table everywhere. Buy a bottle from your druggist and test its merits. For sale by

THE HERALD.

MORGANTOWN, Ky., Sept. 13, 1878.

Editor Herald:

At 8 o'clock A. M., September, 21, the musical chimes of the Seminary bell, gave notice that Prof. W. J. Finley, D. D., was on duty again, ready to assist those who might wish to enter the Normal School. Prof. Finley is an able instructor, and an eloquent divine, and a man who has not met with that degree of success, that his long experience as a teacher, and his commanding talent should foreshadow.

Little Miss Zerrilla Austin, aged about 5 years, a grand daughter of old Dr. John Austin, once of Morgantown, died of congestion of the brain, at 8 P. M., Sept. 1, 1878.

There is a woman in our town, who has a baby about 6 months old, which (baby) is so fat that he has to roll him in dry sand every night to keep him in bed.

Mr. Geo. W. Doolin, a native and an old citizen of this county, died Sept. 6th. The last few months of his life were passed under a dark cloud of mental aberration, but he had lived a very consistent christian life; had the confidence and respect of all acquainted with him; but he has quit the walks of men, and entered the shoreless domain of the invisible.

T. M. Jones, who immigrated from Ohio county to Texas about six years ago has returned to Butler (his native) county. His numerous relatives and friends are pleased to see him again in places familiar to him in the days of his youth; but his estimable wife sleeps beneath the Southern soil; she has gone out at the door, beyond which the eye of faith alone can penetrate.

Mr. James Rives, our newly elected judge, "took his seat" last Monday, in company with three or four other fast young men of this place; we improved the first good opportunity to interview Mr. Rives, as to the kind of fare we might have, in case misfortune or misconduct should impose upon us the disagreeable necessity of becoming his involuntary guest. Mr. Rives seems to bear acquaintance very well, and has a very delicate sense of propriety, and I have no doubt will take good care that his guests are securely protected from any idle gaze, or prurient curiosity of vulgar outdoor spectators.

Mr. James Koons one of our citizens, has a fine June apple tree, that has borne its third crop this year; something remarkable for this climate.

To the wife of Mr. Thomas J. Bunch, our efficient County Clerk, was born Sunday last, a fine boy. Tom says that the Bunch (of children) is increasing, but that each addition is a new flower of the brightest hue.

Hon. Jerome T. Moore, Police Judge of Morgantown, is recovering from an attack of fever—the first sickness he has had for 15 years.

Prospects for a wedding grows brighter every day.

A Methodist clergyman has been arrested in Connecticut for murdering a girl.

Gen. B. F. Bristow has decided to change his residence from Louisville to New York.

Ontario produced 44,000,000 pounds of cheese and 13,745,000 pounds of butter last year.

In one year the Moffett register in the Richmond, Va., saloons has paid a revenue of $46,750.

It is said the King of Siam has three thousand wives under one roof. This is one reason for his keeping a standing army.

"You had better ask for manners than money," said a dandy to a beggar. "I asked for what I thought you had the most of."

Two breweries in England, it is stated, consumes as much water daily as would supply a town of 45,000 inhabitants.

Next to English sparrows there is nothing that increases faster than potato bugs, unless it is the interest on an unpaid note.

The wheat crop of this year is the greatest ever grown in the United States. It is 90,000,000 bushels greater than last year's crop.

Wild geese have passed over Dallas, Texas, five weeks in advance of their usual appearance. This is said to augur an early winter.

The discovery of rich placer deposits in the gold-bearing streams of Arizona is turning a lively tide of immigration to that promising Territory.

A pint of peanuts donated at Parker City Penn., for the yellow fever sufferers realized $232, the prices paid ranging from $1 to $15 per nut.

Wm. C. Rogers and James Jones, stationers, of New York City, have been arrested for mailing that city out of $1,000,000 under the Tweed regime.

The tramps are leaving the South by thousands. They have been infesting the Mississippi Valley for months, and were as thick as rats upon a Chicago pier, but for some reason they are now making tracks for a land of higher temperature.

It is reported that Sitting Bull has reappeared on his side of the line with all his forces "magnificently armed and equipped." The Canada papers discredit the rumor, and say that the old chief is still resting quietly in the green pastures of the promised land.

"Beautiful, beautiful, silver hair!" Charley murmured fondly, toying lovingly with one of her raven-black tresses, "loft as the plumage of an angel's wing; light as the thistle down that dances on the shimmer of sunset, the glitter of yellow gold, the rich red-brown of autumnal forest, and just then it came off in his hand, and he forgot what to say next. There was a moment of profound silence, and then Aurelia took it from him and went out of the room with it. When she came back he was gone. They met now and then as strangers, and the eyes that were wont to beam upon each other with the glow of love, were now as though they were an old man's eyes.

THE HERALD.

MORGANTOWN, Ky., Sept. 13, 1878.

Editor Herald:

At 8 o'clock A. M., September, 21, the musical chimes of the Seminary bell, gave notice that Prof. W. J. Finley, D. D., was on duty again, ready to assist those who might wish to enter the Normal School. Prof. Finley is an able instructor, and an eloquent divine, and a man who has not met with that degree of success, that his long experience as a teacher, and his commanding talent should foreshadow.

Little Miss Zerrilla Austin, aged about 5 years, a grand daughter of old Dr. John Austin, once of Morgantown, died of congestion of the brain, at 8 P. M., Sept. 1, 1878.

There is a woman in our town, who has a baby about 6 months old, which (baby) is so fat that he has to roll him in dry sand every night to keep him in bed.

Mr. Geo. W. Doolin, a native and an old citizen of this county, died Sept. 6th. The last few months of his life were passed under a dark cloud of mental aberration, but he had lived a very consistent christian life; had the confidence and respect of all acquainted with him; but he has quit the walks of men, and entered the shoreless domain of the invisible.

T. M. Jones, who immigrated from Ohio county to Texas about six years ago has returned to Butler (his native) county. His numerous relatives and friends are pleased to see him again in places familiar to him in the days of his youth; but his estimable wife sleeps beneath the Southern soil; she has gone out at the door, beyond which the eye of faith alone can penetrate.

Mr. James Rives, our newly elected judge, "took his seat" last Monday, in company with three or four other fast young men of this place; we improved the first good opportunity to interview Mr. Rives, as to the kind of fare we might have, in case misfortune or misconduct should impose upon us the disagreeable necessity of becoming his involuntary guest. Mr. Rives seems to bear acquaintance very well, and has a very delicate sense of propriety, and I have no doubt will take good care that his guests are securely protected from any idle gaze, or prurient curiosity of vulgar outdoor spectators.

Mr. James Koons one of our citizens, has a fine June apple tree, that has borne its third crop this year; something remarkable for this climate.

To the wife of Mr. Thomas J. Bunch, our efficient County Clerk, was born Sunday last, a fine boy. Tom says that the Bunch (of children) is increasing, but that each addition is a new flower of the brightest hue.

Hon. Jerome T. Moore, Police Judge of Morgantown, is recovering from an attack of fever—the first sickness he has had for 15 years.

Prospects for a wedding grows brighter every day.

WORLDLY WAIFS.
A Methodist clergyman has been arrested in Connecticut for murdering a girl.

Gen. B. F. Bristow has decided to change his residence from Louisville to New York.

Ontario produced 44,000,000 pounds of cheese and 13,745,000 pounds of butter last year.

In one year the Moffett register in the Richmond, Va., saloons has paid a revenue of $46,750.

It is said the King of Siam has three thousand wives under one roof. This is one reason for his keeping a standing army.

"You had better ask for manners than money," said a dandy to a beggar. "I asked for what I thought you had the most of."

Two breweries in England, it is stated, consumes as much water daily as would supply a town of 45,000 inhabitants.

Next to English sparrows there is nothing that increases faster than potato bugs, unless it is the interest on an unpaid note.

The wheat crop of this year is the greatest ever grown in the United States. It is 90,000,000 bushels greater than last year's crop.

Wild geese have passed over Dallas, Texas, five weeks in advance of their usual appearance. This is said to augur an early winter.

The discovery of rich placer deposits in the gold-bearing streams of Arizona is turning a lively tide of immigration to that promising Territory.

A pint of peanuts donated at Parker City Penn., for the yellow fever sufferers realized $232, the prices paid ranging from $1 to $15 per nut.

Wm. C. Rogers and James Jones, stationers, of New York City, have been arrested for mailing that city out of $1,000,000 under the Tweed regime.

The tramps are leaving the South by thousands. They have been infesting the Mississippi Valley for months, and were as thick as rats upon a Chicago pier, but for some reason they are now making tracks for a land of higher temperature.

It is reported that Sitting Bull has reappeared on his side of the line with all his forces "magnificently armed and equipped." The Canada papers discredit the rumor, and say that the old chief is still resting quietly in the green pastures of the promised land.

"Beautiful, beautiful, silver hair!" Charley murmured fondly, toying lovingly with one of her raven-black tresses, "loft as the plumage of an angel's wing; light as the thistle down that dances on the shimmer of sunset, the glitter of yellow gold, the rich red-brown of autumnal forest, and just then it came off in his hand, and he forgot what to say next. There was a moment of profound silence, and then Aurelia took it from him and went out of the room with it. When she came back he was gone. They met now and then as strangers, and the eyes that were wont to beam upon each other with the glow of love, were now as though they were an old man's eyes.

LOCAL NEWSPAPERS.

Many persons suppose this list to be composed of cheap, low priced newspapers. The fact is quite otherwise. The Catalogue states exactly what the papers are. When the name of a paper is printed in FULL, FACE TYPE it is in every instance the BEST paper in the place. When printed in CAPITALS it is the second best. When printed in SMALL TYPE it is the third best. When printed in ROMAN letters it is neither the best nor the second best, but is usually a very good one, notwithstanding. The rates for advertising are given in full in the Catalogue. The price for one inch four lines in the entire list is $5.00. The regular rates of the papers for the same space and time are $3.00 to $5.00. The list includes 970 newspapers, of which 163 are issued DAILY, and 807 WEEKLY. They are located in 925 different cities and towns, of which 22 are State Capitals, 324 are County Seats, and 500 are Town Seats. LISTS SENT ON APPLICATION. Address GEO. P.
